COVER DRAWING

Michigan State Capitol:

This image, with flags flying to indicate that both chambers of the legislature are in session, may have originated as an etching based on a drawing or a photograph. The artist is unknown. The drawing predates the placement of the statue of Austin T. Blair on the capitol grounds in 1898.

PAGE GRAPHICS

Capitol Dome:

The architectural rendering of the Michigan State Capitol's dome is the work of Elijah E. Myers, the building's renowned architect. Myers inked the rendering on linen in late 1871 or early 1872. Myers' fine draftsmanship, the hallmark of his work, is clearly evident.

Because of their size, few architectural renderings of the 19th century have survived. Michigan is fortunate that many of Myers' designs for the Capitol were found in the building's attic in the 1950's. As part of the state's 1987 sesquicentennial celebration, they were conserved and deposited in the Michigan State Archives.

(Michigan State Archives)

East Elevation of the Michigan State Capitol:

When Myers' drawings were discovered in the 1950's, this view of the Capitol – the one most familiar to Michigan citizens – was missing. During the building's recent restoration (1989-1992), this drawing was commissioned to recreate the architect's original rendering of the east (front) elevation.

RELATIONSHIP TO THE MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

The Michigan Administrative Code (1979 edition), which contains all permanent administrative rules in effect as of December 1979, was, during the period 1980-83, updated each calendar quarter with the publication of a paperback supplement. An annual supplement contained those permanent rules, which had appeared in the 4 quarterly supplements covering that year.

Quarterly supplements to the Code were discontinued in January 1984, and replaced by the monthly publication of permanent rules and emergency rules in the Michigan Register. Annual supplements have included the full text of those permanent rules that appear in the twelve monthly issues of the Register during a given calendar year. Emergency rules published in an issue of the Register are noted in the annual supplement to the Code.

SUBSCRIPTIONS AND DISTRIBUTION

The Michigan Register, a publication of the State of Michigan, is available for public subscription at a cost of $110.00 per year. Submit subscription requests to: DMB, Office of Administrative Services, P.O. Box 30026, 320 South Walnut Street, Lansing, MI 48909. Checks Payable: State of Michigan. ORR # 1995-020

Filed with the Secretary of State on _____
These rules take effect 7 days after filing with the Secretary of State.

(MCL 24.257(1) states:

Sec. 57. (1) The office of regulatory reform may omit from the Michigan register, the Michigan Administrative Code, and the Michigan Administrative Code's annual supplement any rule, the publication of which would be unreasonably expensive or lengthy if the rule in printed or reproduced form is made available on application to the promulgating agency, if the Michigan Administrative Code publication and the Michigan register contain a notice stating the general subject of the omitted rule and how a copy of the rule may be obtained.

Pursuant to MCL 24.257(1), Office of Regulatory Reform has decided to omit from the Michigan Register the Environmental Response Division Proposed Administrative Rules promulgated by the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality under the identifying number #1995-020. ORR has determined that publication of the rule would be unreasonably expensive or lengthy.

The Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) is revising a series of administrative rules promulgated pursuant to Part 201, Environmental Remediation, of Michigan's Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act, 1994 PA 451, as amended. The rules provide for full implementation of land use-based cleanup criteria; set forth algorithms for calculation of generic cleanup criteria, along with the generic cleanup criteria and the toxicological, chemical, and physical property values used to derive all cleanup criteria; explain requirements for remedial action plans and other stages of response activity; clarify which types of response activity require DEQ approval; describe the conditions that must be satisfied for response activity to be considered complete; clarify affirmative obligations of liable persons; and update rules that deal with program administration, such as the inventory of contaminated sites, public funding for the cleanup program, and alternate water service.

Copies of the proposed rules are available for inspection at all Environmental Response Division offices. The rules can be viewed and downloaded from the Internet through www.michigan.gov (use the search function and enter "Proposed Changes to Administrative Rules" including the quotation marks). These rules can also be viewed on the Internet through the Office of Regulatory Reform website. From www.michigan.gov, use the search function and enter Office of Regulatory Reform to reach the Office of Regulatory Reform home page, then enter 1995-020 EQ in the ORR search function. Copies of the rules may also be obtained by contacting the Lansing office of the Environmental Response Division, P.O. Box 30426, Lansing, Michigan 48909-7926, telephone number 517-373-9838.
